APPENDIX.

MEMOIR OF REV. W. S. BLACK, D. D.

Rev. William Samuel Black, D. D., was born in Cokesbury, South Carolina, August 31, 1836, and died suddenly of heart failure at the district parsonage, Littleton, N. C., August 4, 1897. A good and great man has gone from our midst to Heaven; for God has taken him. He was the son of William B. and Nancy M. Black. He was only four years old when his father died, and was reared by a pious Methodist mother.

He was converted when fourteen years of age at the family altar, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was educated at Cokesbury, the South Carolina Conference school.

December 3d, 1855, he was received into the South Carolina Conference on probation at Marion, in a class of nine.

He served the following appointments: 1856, junior preacher on Lincolnton circuit, Rev. Landy Wood P. C.; 1857, assistant preacher on Wateree Mission, J. L. Shuford P. C.; At the Annual Conference held at Charlotte, N. C., he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Paine; 1858, he was assistant preacher at Anderson, Rev. R. P. Franks P. C.; 1859, he was pastor in charge of Shelby circuit. At the Conference held in Greenville, S. C., he was ordained Elder by Bishop Early; 1860-'61, P. C. of Cheraw; 1862, Yorkville; then, to the close of the war, he was chaplain of the 26th South Carolina Regiment; 1866, P. C. of Greenville station; 1867-'68, Newberry; 1869, Cokesbury circuit; 1870, P. E. Wadesboro District. That year the territory in which he labored was transferred to the North Carolina Conference, and he accepted cheerfully the new relation, and was appointed P. E. of the Charlotte District, where he served three years. During the next four years, 1874-'77, inclusive, he was P. E. of the Wilmington District; 1878-'79-'80, P. C. Edenton Street church, Raleigh. Four years following he was P. E. on Salisbury District; the next four years on Durham District; 1889-'90 on Raleigh District. On the death of Rev. J. T. Harris, November, 1890, Dr. Black was chosen as his successor as Superintendent of Oxford Orphan Asylum.

Here he did unusually fine work, and every interest of this great charity prospered under his wise supervision.

February 12, 1894, Rev. S. D. Adams, P. E. of Warrenton District, died, and Bishop Duncan appointed Brother Black in charge of that work. Here he wrougnt with marked success for almost four years and ceased at once to work and live. His remains were taken to Raleigh for burial. Suitable services were held in Edenton Street church, where a large number of his old parishioners and friends showed with his family how they loved htm. At the grave the regular burial services were held, and then the Masons bestowed the usual honors of their order upon him. It was truly a day of great grief.

Dr. Black was for six years the senior editor of the RALEIGH CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, retiring from that position only to give his undivided attention to the work of the ministry.

He was a Trustee of Trinity College for many years; was always at his post to serve the interest of his Church school with true loyalty. His was heart devotion.

He was a member of every General Conference since 1874, except the last session at Memphis, Tenn., and will be remembered by many of his brethren as a wise and successful co-laborer in the highest council of his church.

Dr. Black was a man of great and varied ability, and entrusted with many delicate and difficult responsibilities, and showed himself equal to every place to which he was called. True and faithful, he never disappointed the expectation or abused the confidence of his Church or friends.

His was a large heart, full of loving sympathy with every person or cause worthy of his help. His devotion to personal friends was beautiful and helpful. While Dr. Black wrought well in every field assigned him, his best work was on districts, where twenty-two years of service out of forty-two were given. He fitted well this larger sphere where ordinarily large congregations heard the truth declared in plainness, power, tenderness and love. In the quarterly conference he looked well after all the interests of the Church. When he made a round on his District it meant new life and growth in every department of the work. His last District Conference, only two weeks before his death, was a fine success. To him it was a spiritual feast, and he was very happy till the final end came. Several times during the last month of his life he said: "I am not well, but I am ready; it is all right." When the end was near he sweetly said: "Wife, good-bye; tell the children good-bye. I want you all to meet me in Heaven." This was his last word as he passed into the glory land.

Dr. Black was twice married—December 9, 1866, to Miss Mary Flemming, eldest child of Rev. W. H. Flemming, D. D., a prominent member of the South Carolina Conferenee. Husband and wife were Christianly proud of each other. Theirs was a large life in labors, usefulness and happiness—sharing and rejoicing together in their individual and mutual toil in the Master's vineyard. His second wife was the widow of Dr. Bryan and the daughter of Rev. William Grant, who did long and successful work in the bounds of the Virginia and North Carolina Conferences. This marriage occurred April 30, 1895. She contributed greatly to his happiness and usefulness the last two years of his life. The devotion of his children to her is beautiful .She, with three children by the first marriage, survives him. They are Mr. William F. Black, of Raleigh; Rev. Benson H. Black, who was recommended by his father's last District Conference to join the traveling connection; and Miss Mary O. Black, a gifted and noble character who graduated at Greensboro Female College, May, 1896.

Theirs was a great love. Few children have had so much in the lives and work of their father and mother for which to thank God, and from which to gain noble aspirations and purposes. Dr. Black was one of eight children, three sons and five daughters. "One by one they have been gathering home," until only three sisters are left to weep over his death, viz: Mrs. Elizabeth Blackman, Bowersville, Ga.; Mrs. Anna M, Dorricotte, and Mrs. Nannie Burns, Denver, S. C. He has a nephew in Florida and another in the South Carolina Conference, May the Holy One abide with widow and children, with sisters and all kinspeople, for comfort, for best service and for eternal salvation.

The whole Church, and particularly the North Carolina Conference, will greatly miss Brother Black---none so much, I am persuaded, as this writer The affectionate intimacy between our wives in the Woman's Missionary work, and our long and close association as trustees, and in the Bishop's cabinet; and in the home and personal association "we took sweet counsel together and went to the house of God in company." Our last conversation was at Trinity College Commencement; closing with the covenant to meet each other in Heaven. This seems wonderfully significant as I write.

By every token he is safe. My heart is fixed, through grace, to join him there.

J. A. CUNINGGIM.

MEMOIR OF REV. LANGHORNE LEITCH.

REV. LANGHORNE LEITCH, son of Thomas Maurice and Martha Spencer Leitch, was born at Mt. Ida, Buckingham county, Va., August 30th, 1866.

He was baptized in infancy by Rev. Wm. S. Thompson, of the Presbyterian Church; was converted and joined the Methodist Church at the early age of eleven years; when not more than fourteen he felt called to the ministry, and consecrated himself to that service; was received under the care of the Quarterly Conference as candidate for the ministry, September, 1882; and was licensed to preach during the spring of 1885. He was ordained local deacon by Bishop Wilson at Richmond, Va., in March, 1890, and local elder some time during the year 1894.

In the fall of 1882 he entered Randolph-Macon College, and after four years of faithful, zealous work, graduated in June, 1886. The following September he entered the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University, and graduated three years later with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. In a class of exceptional strength he stood among the foremost, excelling in exegetical work. In 1889 he won the Hebrew prize by an essay on "The Prophecy of Joel," which was afterwards published in the "Southern Methodist Quarterly Review."

It was during his stay at Vanderbilt that this writer first began to know and love him. While at Vanderbilt University Brother Leitch heard the call to the foreign field, and was not slow to answer, "Here am I, send me." When he graduated he expected to go at once to Japan, but being delayed, he accepted a call to service no less missionary and even more difficult and trying. For five months he lived a most laborious and self-sacrificing life as teacher in a convict mine in Alabama. Returning utterly worn down, he found a haven in a mother's love and restored health in a mother's care. Before he had fully regained his strength a call came to supply work in Oregon. He longed to stay with his mother the few remaining months before sailing for the East, but writing his friends, "The King's business does not permit of rivalry from personal choice," he kissed his mother the last time on earth, and hurried across the continent to the work at Dallas, Oregon. At the meeting of the Columbia Conference he was received on trial and appointed to Coquille City, but shortly afterwards, in October, 1890, he was appointed to China.

He carried into his work in China the same self-sacrificing intensity which had characterized him elsewhere. Sometimes it seemed an extravagance of self-forgetfulness, but to most of us it may well serve as an inspiration, if, indeed, it be not an accusation The first year, besides his unusually vigorous and successful application to the study of the language, which was about all his brethren expected him to do, he began to do active evangelistic work in Wusieh. For nearly three years, at first alone, and afterwards with the aid of his wife, he exerted every power to build there a church of souls redeemed from ignorance and sin. But his body was not equal to the demands he made on it in his zeal for souls. His health gave way. The change to Soochow failing to restore him, he was obliged to return in June, 1894, to America.

The summer and fall of 1894 were spent seeking rest and health, but largely in vain. In December he was transferred from the Virginia Conference (his home Conference, to which he had been transferred from the China Mission Conference) to the North Carolina Conference. He brought to us his courage, his zeal, and his unselfish longing to labor, but only the wreck of his physical self. In much suffering and in many afflictions he labored bravely and faithfully among us for two years. In 1894 he was appointed to the Nashville Circuit, in 1895 to Dunn Circuit, and in 1896 to Hillsboro Circuit. Even at Hillsboro, when confined to his room and suffering intensely, he still, with accustomed zeal, thought of and planned for his work, but he was not to accomplish it. He grew worse, was taken by kind friends to Johns Hopkins Hospital, and there, in spite of every effort to save his life, passed away April 30th, 1897. His body was laid to rest in the Baltimore cemetery by Bishop Wilson and other friends, with every token of loving respect. His soul has found that for which it had so often sighed, service unhindered, unlimited by suffering.

At the close of his first year in China, November 16th, 1891, Brother Leitch was married to Miss Mildred Phillips, a medical missionary of our Woman's Board. She has stood faithfully by his side through the labors and sufferings of more than five years, and now with two little girls survives him. One bright jewel, Mildred Louise, preceded her father to the spirit world. Besides these a large family of brothers and sisters survive to sorrow. For all let the prayer of the Church go up to "Our Father."

Of Brother Leitch's work in China, Dr. W. R. Lambuth says: "He was a hard student and became very proficient in Chinese. The year he spent in the walled of city Chang Chih was one of arduous toil and self-sacrifice. The impress he made on the natives was deep and permanent. * * * Never has there been a more heroic struggle against disability and unfavorable conditions. Without a word of complaint from his lips he suffered, toiled and gave his strength generously to the great work committed to his hands. While Dr. Parker was absent in the United States Brother Leitch was acting Principal of Anglo-Chinese College in Shanghai. Whether in the schoolroom or on his itenerating tours, the same painstaking, masterful effort was true of his daily life. He threw his whole soul into every undertaking." These words faithfully portray the whole life of our departed friend. "Never has there been a more heroic struggle against disability and unfavorable conditions." With nobly ambitious aspirations, with deep faith, with undaunted courage, with vast energy and unceasing perseverance, he planned great things for God. But 'twas not his

"to wield
The sickle in the ripened field," but since his

"duty's task was wrought
In unison with God's great thought
The near and future blend in one,
And whatso'er was willed, was done."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

The Committee on the Bible Cause respectfully report that we have carefully considered the subject committed to us, and present the following brief summary of facts concerning the work and condition of the American Bible Society, gathered from documents placed in our hands.

Perhaps never before in the history of the Church were there greater opportunities and louder calls for the distribution of the Scriptures than at the present time. The Bible was never more widely read and studied and sought after, in our own land, than to-day; and the work of the Bible Society in supplying our people at home was therefore never more important and needful than now. And as our Foreign Missions extend, the necessity and opportunity for circulating the Word of God increase. As evidence of this we have but to consider the reports which come to us from our Missions in heathen lands.

But while these opportunities have been opening up so grandly, and these calls have come in so loudly from every quarter, the American Bible Society has been strangely hampered in the work by lack of funds to meet the demands upon it and to enter the fields opening before it. Its receipts last year were $77,000 short of its expenditures (as was also the fact the year before), and debt or failure in its work has been avoided only by the use of a reserve fund which it still held from a large legacy received several years ago, which reserve is now well-nigh exhausted. The falling off has been chiefly in legacies; and while the receipts in late months have somewhat improved, they are still by no means adequate to sustain and develop the large and important work.

In this connection it is proper to say that the purpose of the Board of Managers to sell the Bible House, the publication of which has caused some uneasiness among the friends of the Bible Society, does not by any means indicate the failure of this great agency of the Church, or the cessation of its indispensable work, but only the change of base to secure greater economy and efficiency. Should this purpose be carried out, it will be with a view of locating in a more desirable situation higher up town, which will in no wise interrupt the operations of the Society. Other changes may follow, but all will be for the promotion of the work.

The facts here stated force upon us the careful consideration of our own relations and obligations to this honored Society. That we are dependent upon it for a most important deparment of work in both the Home and Foreign field, is most evident. And what is needed on our part is that we clearly recognize and faithfully meet these obligations. Even a small contribution from all the churches whom the Bible Society serves would amply supply its treasury with the funds needed. That there has been great improvement in this respect with regard to our own churches of late years, we rejoice to record. But an examination of last year's minutes will show that the average contribution per church was only about 50 cents, and per member little more than ½ cent. This is certainly no proper expression of our interest in the Bible Society and appreciation of its work, and indicates the lack of a proper presentation of the cause to our people.

We therefore recommend that our pastors, in view of the urgent necessities of the American Bible Society and the supreme importance of its work, be urged to carry out both the spirit and the letter of the requirements of our Discipline to present this cause to every church of their charges and take up a proper collection for it.

By calling upon the Rev. T. H. Law, D. D., District Superintendent, S. C., he will always gladly furnish, freely, documents concerning the work and envelopes for the collection.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

Your Board begs leave to submit the following report: We find from the report of our Colporteur that his sales in North Carolina amount to $10,404.00, and in South Carolina $7,166.00 during the year ending November 30th, 1897.

Knowing the great good that is accomplished by the distribution of religious literature, and regarding it as one of the great agencies of the Church for the salvation of the world, therefore RESOLVED 1st, That we greatly appreciate the labor of our Colporteur in traveling so much within our bounds and placing so many good books in the hands of our people, that we urge all our pastors and Sunday School superintendents to co-operate with him in placing our literature in all our Sunday Schools.

RESOLVED 2d, That we request Bishop Hargrove to re-appoint Rev. T. J. Gattis Colporteur of this Conference.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Methodism recognizes the fact that Christian education is indispensable in the great movements of the Church. Culture and grace combined will raise our humanity to its true dignity and give the Church potency over the advancing civilization of the age. Methodism had its origin in a college, and was baptized with divine grace, and these elements must ever remain as the right hand of the Church. We are delighted to know that those sentiments are widening and deepening throughout our Zion. The world is struggling as never before for education. The Church must keep in the van in the revival of learning.

As there is confusion in the minds of many as to Christian education, we define it as follows:

The aim of Christian education is to form and devolop Christian character upon the doctrines and by the methods of Christ. It therefore assumes that the Bible is a Divine revelation of the supreme body of truth, revealing the only true triune God, the origin of all things, the nature of man, the moral condition of human nature, the only method of human salvation, and the Divine doctrines of social life and civil life. Christian education interprets material nature, human nature and life by the doctrines of the Bible, and science, literature and philosophy are to be subordinated to the doctrines and aims of the Word of God. Christian education places the Bible into the regular course of study as the supremest truth to be taught, not simply as history and literature, but as the only doctrines of human redemption.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

We rejoice to learn that Trinity College is adding new lustre and power to her name. She is an integral part of Methodism in the State. This year has been one of marvelous prosperity. There have been improvements in all lines. Her patronage has greatly increased, her curriculum has broadened, her endowment has been enlarged, her grounds have been beautified, her library has grown, her museum continues to multiply articles of curiosity and valne.

In accordance with the conditions of Mr. Duke's gift of one hundred thousand dollars to the endowment fund of the College, the Trustees opened the classes to the admission of women. During the present year twelve young ladies have been matriculated in the various classes, and their work indicates the wisdom of this new departure.

Through the benefaction of Mr. Duke a bui ding for :he accommodation of women is about finished.

Special praise is due Miss Anne Roney, of Durham, for expending nearly $1,000 in beautifying the Park.

Master Angier Duke has honored himself and the College by presenting a handsome telescope to the department of astronomy.

Another chair in English Literature has been added by the beneficence of Mr. B. N. Duke, thus making two full chairs in this department. Besids, he also presented to the department of Physics an X-Ray machine.

Many valuable volumes on science have been given by that true friend Col. J. S. Carr.

The alumni are now providing to build the Craven Memorial Hall in memory of its illustrious founder.

The success of the College gives profound gratitude. The President and Faculty have justly won our confidence and support.

The Board asks the Conference to confirm the election of the following Trustees: Revs. G. A. Oglesby, A. P. Tyer, W. C. Norman, N. M. Jurney and Messrs. J. H. Southgate, B. N. Duke and Hon. F. M. Simmons.

The Board requests the Bishop to re-appoint Dr. J. C. Kilgo President.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

This well-known institution continues her career of prosperity. She stands now in the front rank of female colleges in our Southland. Improvements are being made in every department. Her library has 5,000 volumes and is growing. The President hopes to have a new Library and Gymnasium building by next commencement. President Peacock and faculty are prepared to give a very high grade of mental and religious training to all their pupils. We commend this institution to all our people.

LITTLETON FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Conference holds a controlling interest in this noble seat of learning. It is in a prosperous condition, and grows steadily. A religious atmosphere pervades her halls. Young ladies are here taught in moral as well as secular duties.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

This College is managed in the interest of the Methodist Church, and is on an economical basis, so as to place it within the reach of all who desire a good education. Special advantages are offered the daughters of ministers of our Church.

The President, Mr. M. S. Davis, only asks a trial to test its merits. It is worthy of a large patronage.

SCARRITT BIBLE AND TRAINING SCHOOL.

This school is located in Kansas City, Mo., and is designed to equip young ladies as missionaries, nurses, Sunday School teachers, or as Christian scholars and workers. We think it is meeting a long-felt want in Church work.

The Board recommend that the Trustees of Trinity College establish in Durham a fitting school to prepare boys for college.

We also recommend that the Presiding Elder at every Quarterly Conference request the names and addresses of all boys and girls that should be in school, and forward the same to Dr. Kilgo.

GENERAL BOARD.

Your Board would again recommend the continuance of the plans of the General Board, believing this plan can be made very pelpful in our general educational work.

The Board asks that Dr. J. C. Kilgo be appointed Secretary of the Board.

The Board recommends the continuance of the assessment of $600 for Paine Institution.

The Board recommends that $5,000 be raised for the current expenses of Trinity College.

That the assessment of $323 for the General Board, as provided under paragraph 411, be added to the above, to be pro rated with it.

TRIBUTE TO DR. KILGO.

Through the abundant labors of Dr. John C. Kilgo, President of Trinity College, the mercury is rising in the thermometer which registers the interest of our people in education. With the same trumpet which pressed the lips of Wesley, Coke, Asbury and their successors to this hour, he has blown bugle blasts from the mountains to the sea, summoning Israel's hosts to a clear perception of the true basis of individual and national safety.

Obeying the marching orders of his Church, her standards in his keeping have been unsullied; and in the strength of the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus Christ, he has heralded the message of the Infinite to his own soul with power and with unction as of the Holy One.

The spirit of his endeavor should not be interpreted merely from the standpoint of the local, the secular, the civic or of geographical boundaries, but from that wider, more exalted sphere where world problems press for solution and where great principles in their application belt not States, but planets.

Gladdened with the knowledge of the practical unanimity with which he and his words have been received within our bounds, we rejoice in the belief that present visible results, so suggestive of encouragement and fruitfulness, are but a foregleam of what the near future holds in reservation.

Let him be assured, if assurance be necessary, of our growing interest in the genius and worth of his work for Trinity College and his heroic championship of truth for truth's sake, of our brotherly love for him, personally, and of our prayers, that the Father may guide him in all things and vouchsafe unto him all good.

The Board recommend that the Conference request the Bishop to appoint N. M. Jurney as Special Agent for the Braxton Craven Memorial Hall.

R. J. MOORMAN, President.

W. H. TOWNSEND, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee has carefully examined the records of the Raleigh, Durham, Fayetteville and Newbern Districts and find them neatly and faithfully kept. The record of the Warrenton District is admirably kept. The only criticism to be made is the absence of the Presiding Elder's signature. This is due to the fact that Dr. Black, the Presiding Elder, died soon after the Conference, before the minutes were transcribed.

The record of the Rockingham District has not the Presiding Elder's signature, otherwise it is a model of neatness.

The record of the Elizabeth City District is neatly kept, but the name of one of the lay delegates present is given simply as "& fol."

The record of the renewal of Local Preachers' license and the recommendation of candidates for admission into the Annual Conference is entered after the record of final adjournment, instead of being entered in the proper place in the minutes of the second day's proceedings.

The Record of the Washington District is to be commended for legibility and neatness, but slight errors are found in spelling and punctuation The roll is not recorded. To the report of the South Edgecombe Circuit the pastor's name is not signed. The reports of committees and resolutions are not properly signed. Irregularity of statement occurs at the beginning of the journal of the afternoon session of the fourth day's proceedings.

The Record of the Wilmington District has not come into our hands.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Whereas, We recognize in the saloon and the liquor traffic one of the greatest, if not the greatest, curse existing in our civilization and nation; therefore Resolved, 1st. That we impress the position of our Church, as stated in our Discipline, pages 97, 98, upon our people.

2d. That we appreciate and approve the position taken by the "American Anti-Saloon League," and all other non-partizan organizations, in their efforts to unite the moral forces of this country against this monster.

3d. That we earnestly urge our people to heartily unite with all consistent efforts to take our people, morally and politically, out of the hands of the whiskey ring.

4th. That we demand that all political parties, if they expect our support, nominate men of sobriety, not dominated by the whiskey power, and of clean character.

5th. That we urge that the law requiring that the injurious effects of alcoholic liquors and narcotics be taught in our public schools, be enforced. The following is the first Section of said law:

"THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA DO ENACT:

"Section 1. That the nature of alcoholic drinks and narcotics, and spe- "cial instruction as to their effect upon the human system, in connection "with the several divisions of the subjects of physiology and hygiene, "shall be included in the branches of study taught in the common or "public schools in the State of North Carolina, and shall be studied and "taught as thoroughly and in the same manner as other like required "branches are in said schools, by the use of text books in the hands of the "pupils, and orally in case of pupils unable to read, and shall be taught "by all teachers and studied by all pupiis in all schools in this State sup- "ported wholly, or in part, by public money."

[Document No. 9.]

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUES.

Your Committee on Epworth Leagues beg leave to make the following report:

With much regret we are compelled to acknowledge that our preachers and people have failed to give such recognition to the importance of this work as the needs of the Church in reaching and utilizing the young people demand. From the pulpit rings the exhortation: "Go work in the vineyard," to every young convert. There returns the question: "Where shall we work?—what can we do?" The Epworth League, fully organized in its different departments, answers the question clearly by at once opening channels through which the quickened energies of the new life can most readily touch the unsaved world.

The Devotional Department, in the hands of a consecrated layman, will build a net-work of cottage prayer-meetings through the congregation and on the borders of the pastoral charge that, like the signal lights on the hills of Scotland, they will call the people from the highways and hedges to the sanctuary.

Our Charity and Help Department will and does relieve the pastor of much work in distributing the funds of the Church to the needy as well as supplementing the pastoral oversight of special cases. Our Literary Departmant, rightly used, enlarges the receptive power of the soul for the ingress of the Gospel—thus making better hearers of the Word and more fully qualifying such to be greater "doers of the Lord's will."

We are glad to note in Dr. Steel's report that there is a steady growth of interest in forming Epworth Leagues throughout the Church, having gained eight hundred and ten Leagues during the past year.

We also learn from Dr. Steel that the 10 cent per capita assessment fails to meet the expenses of the Central office. To remedy this defect we recommend to the General Conference the importance of placing the Epworth League work in the same relation to the Church as the Sunday Schools now sustain, and we herein request our delegates to the ensuing General Conference to use their best efforts to secure such relation.

Arrangements were made for holding an Epworth League and Sunday School Conference for the North Carolina Conference, and power was vested in the officers elected at Goldsboro to arrange programme, time and place. For reasons satisfactory to the officers this Conference was not called. We recommend that the matter of holding such Conference be left with the Epworth League Committee and officers of the Epworth League and Sunday School Conference.

Your Committee believes more will be accomplished in creating interest in this work through district organization, and respectfully request that our committees arrange for an Epworth League and Sunday School Conference, entirely separate from the usual District Conference. Thinking more may be accomplished by increasing the present Committee, we ask that you will elect, as additional members, Dr. J. C. Kilgo, Revs. R. B. John, G. A. Oglesby and N. M. Watson, and the following laymen: F. L. Bundy, Professors R. L. Flowers and Edwin Mims.

Brethren, hear the pleadings of your Committee and enter upon a thorough study of the importance of this work, and then wheel into line with our great Church in recognizing the power the young life that we may use for spreading Christian holiness over our land.

F. A. Bishop, Chairman.

J. B. Hurley, Secretary.

Two years ago, acting under the advice of the presiding Bishop and of the secretaries of our General Mission Board, and themselves seeing the need of a vigorous advance movement, your Board provided for the employment of a Conference Missionary Secretary. In that capacity we have employed two of our most experienced, able and successful workers, who carried into the work zeal and faithful industry. They have done a good work, but we now deem it wise to discontinue the office. In this we are acting practically upon the recommendation of our last Secretary, Dr. Swindell, as well as upon our own mature judgment. In this connection the Board of Mssions wishes to make public acknowledgment of their indebtedness to Dr. Swindell for his work. It is also proper for us to state that, since his appointment to the District, Dr. Swindell has not drawn any salary from the Board, though as far as possible he has continued to perform his duties as Secretary.

But while we deem it wise to discontinue this office, it is of utmost importance that there be no decrease in interest in the work. With the truly wonderful achievement of our senior Missionary Secretary in providing for the debt to encourage us, with the opportunity and emergency in the foreign field to inspire us and to warn us of the dangers of delay, with the Great Commission as our marching-orders and Christ himself, our Leader and the Giver of our power, we must not, we dare not, delay. But the marvelous system of our Church provides adequate agencies for an accomplishment in educating our people, quickening their missionary conscience and collecting moneys, hitherto unprecedented IF ONLY EVERY ONE WOULD DO HIS DUTY. We, therefore, urge upon all, presiding elders and pastors, the early and careful study of the disciplinary requirements, and offer them, through our Secretary, our hearty co-operation and assistance in any work they may undertake.

We would call your especial attention to the Missionary Mass-Meetings required by the Discipline in every charge and at every District Conference. These, properly utilized, would accomplish untold good. Secondly, to the organization of your Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies. The hope of the future is in the children. Organize them wisely, and train them well, remembering that the great purpose of their organization is not the raising of the collections, but the raising of men and women who will understand and accept their responsibility to the world, and who will cheerfully and wisely set to work to accomplish it. Do not, however, discourage the Bright Jewels; rather in every way encourage them.

We would also urge, as far as possible, early collections. Systematic effort, begun early and continued throughout the year, with the definite purpose of securing something from every member, will, in a large majority of our circuits and stations, secure the collections in full. As probably the most valuable human aid the pastor will be able to bring to his assistance in this work, we recommend the wide spread of our missionary periodicals. Put them, if possible, in every home. But more important still, let every pastor, by his personal study of these periodicals, and of the Word of God, fit himself to become in the pulpit and in the homes of his people an educator, an inspirer and a guide. This is the one all-embracing work that we are sent to do. Let us never neglect it.

While in the former part of our report we have dealt upon the duties and obligations of the preachers, we do not forget, nor would we have you forget, that the laymen of the Church are sharers in these duties and obligations. Nor does a layman discharge his responsibility when his subscription, however large, is made and paid. He owes to his pastor, to the Church and to the cause of God, the added benefit of his intelligent and earnest assistance. We, therefore, urge that every pastor, in his Sunday School Missionary Societies, in his mass meetings, and in every other way, endeavor to secure and utilize this assistance. And we beg our laymen to co-operate faithfully with their pastors in this matter. In line with this suggestion we would add our hearty endorsement of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Called of God, it has done and is doing a grand work. The pastor that helps them will receive his own with usury.

Finally, brethren, recognizing the Spirit of God as the one and only hope of success, we entreat that you make constant intercession with our God and Father for his blessings upon those charged with collecting and expending your missionary offerings, upon our missionary workers both at home and abroad, and upon our whole Church that it may more clearly see and more faithfully perform its obligations to a world lying in sin.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals submit the following report:

This is a reading age. The people will read something. The question is, What shall they read? Right reading stimulates thought—thought expands the mind—the mind makes the man. How important, then, that the mental pabulum be pure, solid, nutritious!

Tell us what the literature of the people is, and we will tell you what the people are. Let us make the literature of the nation, and we will make the nation. Truly the pen is mightier than the sword.

The power of the press was never so great as it is now; and it is increasing all the time. In order to utilize this mighty means for God and the Church, and to counteract the baleful influence of the impure, skeptical literature that is flooding the land, we must sow the country down with cheap, pure, powerful books and periodicals. For Methodists, Methodist literature is best.

We rejoice to learn from the annual report of the agents of our Publishing House that they have had a fairly prosperous year, notwithstanding these stringent, calamitous times.

We present the following items of special interest, viz:

EXHIBIT MARCH 31, 1897.

Total business	$326,528 26
Gain in assets for the year	41,030 53
Total liabilities	14,954 59
Total assets	710,449 86

We most heartily recommend its publications to our people.

Our great connectional organ, "The Christian Advocate," at Nashville, was never better, or more ably edited, nor more worthy of our patronage than now. It is simply superb, ranking up among the very first religious newspapers of the times. It should be put in the home of every cultured Methodist family in our Church.

"The Bi-Monthly Review," so ably edited by Dr. J. J. Tigert, is rapidly forging to the front on the higher plans of Christian literature. We rejoice to know that it is now self-sustaining. We cannot see how our preachers and educated laymen can keep in line with the higher thought of the present day without reading the "Review."

We could speak well of our Sunday School, Epworth League and Missionary publications, but we would be intringing on the prerogatives of these several boards.

THE NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.—Inasmuch as the conditions that were made at the last Conference concerning the taking of three thousand dollars worth of stock in "The Advocate Publishing Company" have been satisfactorily arranged; and inasmuch as the Company agrees to pay the editor of our Conference fifteen hundred dollars a year; therefore be it RESOLVED, 1st. That we endorse "The North Carolina Advocate" as the organ of our Conference, and commend it to our people. We request our pastors to co-operate with the editors in increasing the circulation of the paper and in collecting subscriptions.

RESOLVED, 2d. That we request the presiding Bishop to appoint Rev. T. N. Ivey, D. D., Editor of "The North Carolina Christian Advocate," for our Conference.

We recommend the appointment of J. N. Cole, R. B. John and Q. K.

Nimocks as an Editorial Committee to represent the sense of this Conference upon matters concerning our Conference organ in the interim of Conference.

J. W. JENKINS, Chairman.

Q. K. NIMOCKS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday School Board submits the following report:

We are profoundly grateful for the increased prosperity of the Sunday School work as represented to us by the report of the Sunday School Editor, and rejoice to report the encouraging fact that in our own Conference there has been progress.

Your Board, through its Secretary, has made an unusual effort during the year to advance Sunday School interests. Nine hundred letters, postals, circular letters and Children's Day programs have been sent to the different preachers and superintendents, urging upon them the importance of organized effort and aiding them in their work.

While results have not been all we could hope for, yet much has been accomplished and we are hopeful. The attendance upon Sunday Schools during this year has been greater than that of any previous year in the history of our Conference. The observance of Children's Day was largely in excess of last year, and the collections on said day was nearly one hundred per cent. over last year.

Our Treasurer's report shows that $109.45 has been expended on needy Sunday Schools and a balance on hand of $41.90 from last year. We have on hand for our work the sum of $218.22.

The work of this Board has been no child's play, and we regret to report that, although appealed to repeatedly to furnish us with the names and postoffices of their superintendents, so that we might get in touch with and aid them in the work, forty-three of our preachers have persistently refused or neglected to answer a single letter.

This has naturally retarded, and, in some measure, crippled the work and we beseech you to co-operate with us in this great labor of love for the Master.

Realizing the need of more thorough organization, we most earnestly entreat our preachers to organize circuit and district Sunday School conferences. The Discipline requires this, and yet, upon the most diligent inquiry, we are pained to find only four district and seventeen circuit conferences in the bounds of our Conference.

We also have to lament the fact that, notwithstanding the resolutions adopted by your body, we find that very little emphasis has been given this work by the district conferences, and trust our presiding elders will in the future arrauge to give it more consideration in those conferences.

We would again urge upon our people the importance of using our own literature; and especially do we call attention to the "Sunday School Magazine," which we believe to be the best published.

This Board offers to donate to needy Sunday Schools an amount not to exceed ten dollars for the purchase of our own literature and song books, when the application for same shall be signed by the preacher in charge and superintendent.

Should libraries be desired, we will donate two-thirds of its cost to an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars, in all, for said library; provided said library is purchased of our publishing house or ourcolporteur, and the application for such aid is signed by the preacher in charge and the superintendent.

We again offer the following recommendations for adoption:

1st. That the Sunday School district conferences shall hereafter be composed of one delegate from each Sunday School having less than one hundred members, and two delegates from each school having one hundred or more members, each Sunday School to be permitted to elect its own delegates.

2d. That a joint anniversary of the Sunday School Board and Epworth League Committee be held annually, on Thursday night, during the session of the Annual Conference, and that a suitable programme for the same be published by the chairmen of said boards.

3d. That a joint meeting of the Epworth Leagues and Sunday Schools, or their representatives, to be appointed by the same, be held annually, not later than the last of July, the time and place of the first meeting to be determined by the chairman of the Epworth League Committee and the chairman of the Sunday School Board, and the Conference to appoint time and place for subsequent meetings.

4th. That there be in connection with each District Conference a meeting of the workers in Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues, and that the presiding elders are requested to appoint the time of holding the district conferences early enough in the week to enable them to devote two days, if necessary to the consideration of these interests.

5th. That the names of Frank Thompson and B. W. Ballard be added to this Board.

All applications for aid to needy schools should be made to our Secretary, Dr. J. L. Nicholson, to whom all Children's Day funds should be forwarded as soon as possible after collection.

J. R. Sawyer, Chairman.

J. L. Nicholson, Secretary.

Sessions of the North Carolina Conference.

The North Carolina Conference was set off from the Virginia Conference in February, 1837 In 1850, and again in 1870, North Carolina territory in the South Carolina Conference was transferred to this Conference. In 1890 North Carolina territory in the Holston Conference and in the Virginia Conference, except that beyond the Chowan River, was transferred to the North Carolina Conference and the Conference was divided into the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. In 1894 the remaining N. C. territory in the Virginia Conferene was transferred to the N. C. Conference. So now the two Conferences embrace the whole of North Carolina.
